Johnon started with a rush, and looked like the winner up until the half-way point, but from there on Langford had the State, from New Jersey and Pennsylvania. HUDSON Six-40 This $1,550 F.O.B. Detroit

Howard E. Coffin Saves 1,000 Needless Pounds

The HUDSON Six-40 for 1915 weighs 2,890 pounds-a seven-passenger car. Built by old standards, such a car would weigh around 4,000 pounds. Cars are all being built lighter, still no other maker has attained this lightness yet. So some will argue that sturdy cars can't be as light as this.

But thousands of these cars went out last year. In thousands of hands, on all sorts of roads, not a single shortcoming developed. Never has a car proved stauncher.

The difference is simply this:

Aluminum takes the place of cast iron. Drop forgings take the place of castings. Better designing combines strength with lightness—in a thousand details. One, for instance, is a tubular propeller Needless weight was a heavy over-tax on tires. HUDSON engineers have stopped it. In addition, their new-type motor cuts fuel cost 30 per cent.

Expense excess is out-of-date. The day of modest size and power and price has come. This new-model HUDSON typifies the car of the future.

It is one of the handsomest cars ever built. It has many attractions found in no other carbeauties, comfortnveniences.
